

Philip Trom, AICP

13170 Triumph Drive
Poway, CA 92064
(619) 254-1890
philiptrom@gmail.com

Education

Master of Urban Planning, August 2003
San José State University, San José

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, June 1998
University of California, San Diego

Skills

- Experienced Project Manager and Supervisor
- Skilled facilitator & presenter for community planning workshops, public outreach efforts and professional development conferences
- Familiarity with federal, state and local requirements pertaining to land use and transportation policies, programs and plans
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills

Work Experience

Senior Regional Planner, (October 2012 to Present)

San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) – San Diego, CA

- Project Manager for SANDAG's Long-Range Regional Plan
- Coordinate implementation and updates of the Regional Plan including the development of policies and strategies, technical analysis, consultant contract management, transportation network development and project phasing
- Provide complex staff support for Policy Advisory Committees, Board of Directors and stakeholder groups
- Monitor updates in state and federal laws impacting regional planning decision-making
- Manage annual staff and consultant budget of over $3 million

Senior Regional Planner, (November 2011 to October 2012) and Associate Regional Planner (September 2006 to November 2011)

San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) – San Diego, CA

- Managed and coordinated regional short-range transit planning activities including the Regional Short Range Transit Plan and transit performance evaluation
- Organized outreach and workshop activities
- Maintained collaborative working relationships with local, state and federal agencies
- Managed staff of six full-time planners

Associate Transportation Planner, (Sept. 2004 to Sept. 2006)

Katz, Okitsu & Associates – San Diego, CA

- Managed various transportation projects and traffic impact studies
- Developed project teams and supervised support staff

Work Experience (Continued) Associate Transportation Planner/Engineer II, (May 2002 to June 2004)
Dowling Associates, Inc. – Oakland, CA

- Prepared traffic impact studies, EIRs, parking, and ped./bike plans
- Developed safety, demographic and ridership data for studies

Professional Organizations American Planning Association (APA) member
American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) Certified Planner

Awards and Activities Instructor, AICP Exam Courses, APA San Diego (2013 to present)
Adjunct Faculty, San Diego State University (2019 to present)
Multiple presentations at APA State and National Conferences and to the Transportation Research Board (2003 to 2019)
California Planning Foundation (CPF) Treasurer and Board Member (2008-2014)
Guest Lecturer in Transportation Planning (SJSU, 2002-2003; SDSU 2014)
Guest Lecturer in Regional Planning (UCSD, 2014-2016)
Guest Lecturer in Traffic Impact Study Analysis (UANL, Mexico, 2004)