Need extra units to graduate? OR need to fulfill a CJ or PA elective? Three 1-unit courses can satisfy one major elective. This is a great way to meet requirements without having to take a full-semester-long-course.

School of Public Affairs College of Extended Studies 1-Unit Weekend Course Fall 2017

Use of Mediation in Police Work

Instructors: Don Fobian and Alexis Dixon

Friday, September 29th 3:00pm – 9:00pm

Saturday, October 7th 8:00am – 5:00pm

PAX 496 (CR/NC) 1 unit

Location: LL 408

$221 Course Fee

Schedule #: 17FA 81410FC

Students will demonstrate understanding of the value of mediation in police work. Mediators have been used effectively as intermediaries between officers and protestors, as facilitators in police interaction with the community and as mediators in disputes between citizens and officers. Mediators are also a valuable resource for officers who respond to civil, rather than criminal calls.
